Privacy Data Protection Declaration for DevPolHack

I acknowledge and consent to the following data protection practices implemented by DevPolHack:

1. Data Storage and Maintenance:

DevPolHack may retain my personal data in its Customer Relationship Management (CRM) system for the purpose of maintaining the customer relationship. This data will be stored until I choose to revoke my consent.

2. Communication:

I understand that DevPolHack may occasionally send me relevant information until I decide to revoke my consent. This could include invitations to events, updates on new offerings, sample newsletters, and other related communications.

3. Data Sharing with Event Partners:

I acknowledge that DevPolHack may share my data, including participant lists, as well as image, sound, and/or video recordings, with event partners. This sharing of data is for the purpose of facilitating the event and related activities.

4. Media and Event Documentation:

I am aware that during the event, image and video recordings may be taken, and participant lists may be presented. These recordings and lists may be used for event documentation, promotional purposes, and related activities.

5. Post-Event Communication:

I acknowledge that DevPolHack may contact me after the event for various purposes, including feedback collection, future event invitations, and relevant communications.

I understand that I have the right to revoke my consent at any time by notifying DevPolHack. The revocation of consent will result in the cessation of communication and the removal of my data from the CRM system, as applicable.

By participating in DevPolHack, I acknowledge that I have read, understood, and consent to the data protection practices outlined above.
